I. BUSINESS:

Cultural Council – Kevin Shanley; went to Barnstable High School, graduate of Boston University. Currently works for Arts Foundation of Cape Cod, and also works for school department as the event manager for the events in the Performing Art Center in the Knight’ Auditorium. Invited to a couple of meetings as an observer by a current member of the Cultural Council, feels he would be a great fit. Has attended three meetings; wanted to make sure he was an effective member on the committee.

Council on Aging- Loni Monahan, has lived on the Cape for 2 years; moved here from Connecticut. Spends a lot of time in the Senior Center; would like to see the senior benefits grow here; currently is working with two individuals from the Senior Center on Aging and Place Programs. Loves to be very involved with multiple groups, and volunteering throughout the years; has a Master’s degree in Education. Has attended a few of the Council on Aging meetings and enjoys the discussions.

Council On Aging – Greg Monahan, has lived on the Cape for 2 years; moved here from Connecticut; plans on retiring here on Cape. Wants to get involved in the community; volunteers in the Police Department on Main Street, went through the Citizens Academy Program at the Barnstable Police Station. Works part time at the Cape Cod Railroad, was active in the community in Connecticut. Worked for 15 years as a fire fighter, Emergency Medical Technician (EMT); has attended a few meetings, likes what they were discussing in the meeting very proactive group.

Agricultural Commission& Water Quality Advisory Committee – Luke White, born and raised on Cape Cod, went to UMass Amherst for the Agricultural Program; interests and education are in Turf Grass Management, wanted to be a Golf Course Superintendent ever since he was 15, ended up working for town golf course for 10 years, and also at the Wianno Golf Course in Osterville as the Assistant Superintendent. Pursued other careers in the water industry which always interested him, especially now since there are so many issues. Looking to get involved with the water field, about 6 months ago received a job at COMM Water Department. Hoping to learn more about the Water industry and make a difference in the town and bring as much knowledge to the Committee as possible.

Recreation Commission-James Tenaglia, born and raised in the Town of Barnstable, played a lot of sports, went to Mass Maritime Academy, traveled overseas for 5 years working as a Construction Project Manager, building power plants. His father was on the Recreation Committee for 15 years, it’s a great program, keeps kid focused through high school and college, and it gives the kids great discipline at a young age. Some ideas he has would like to discuss is turf for the fields so it can last longer and keep the fields in Barnstable more maintainable.
